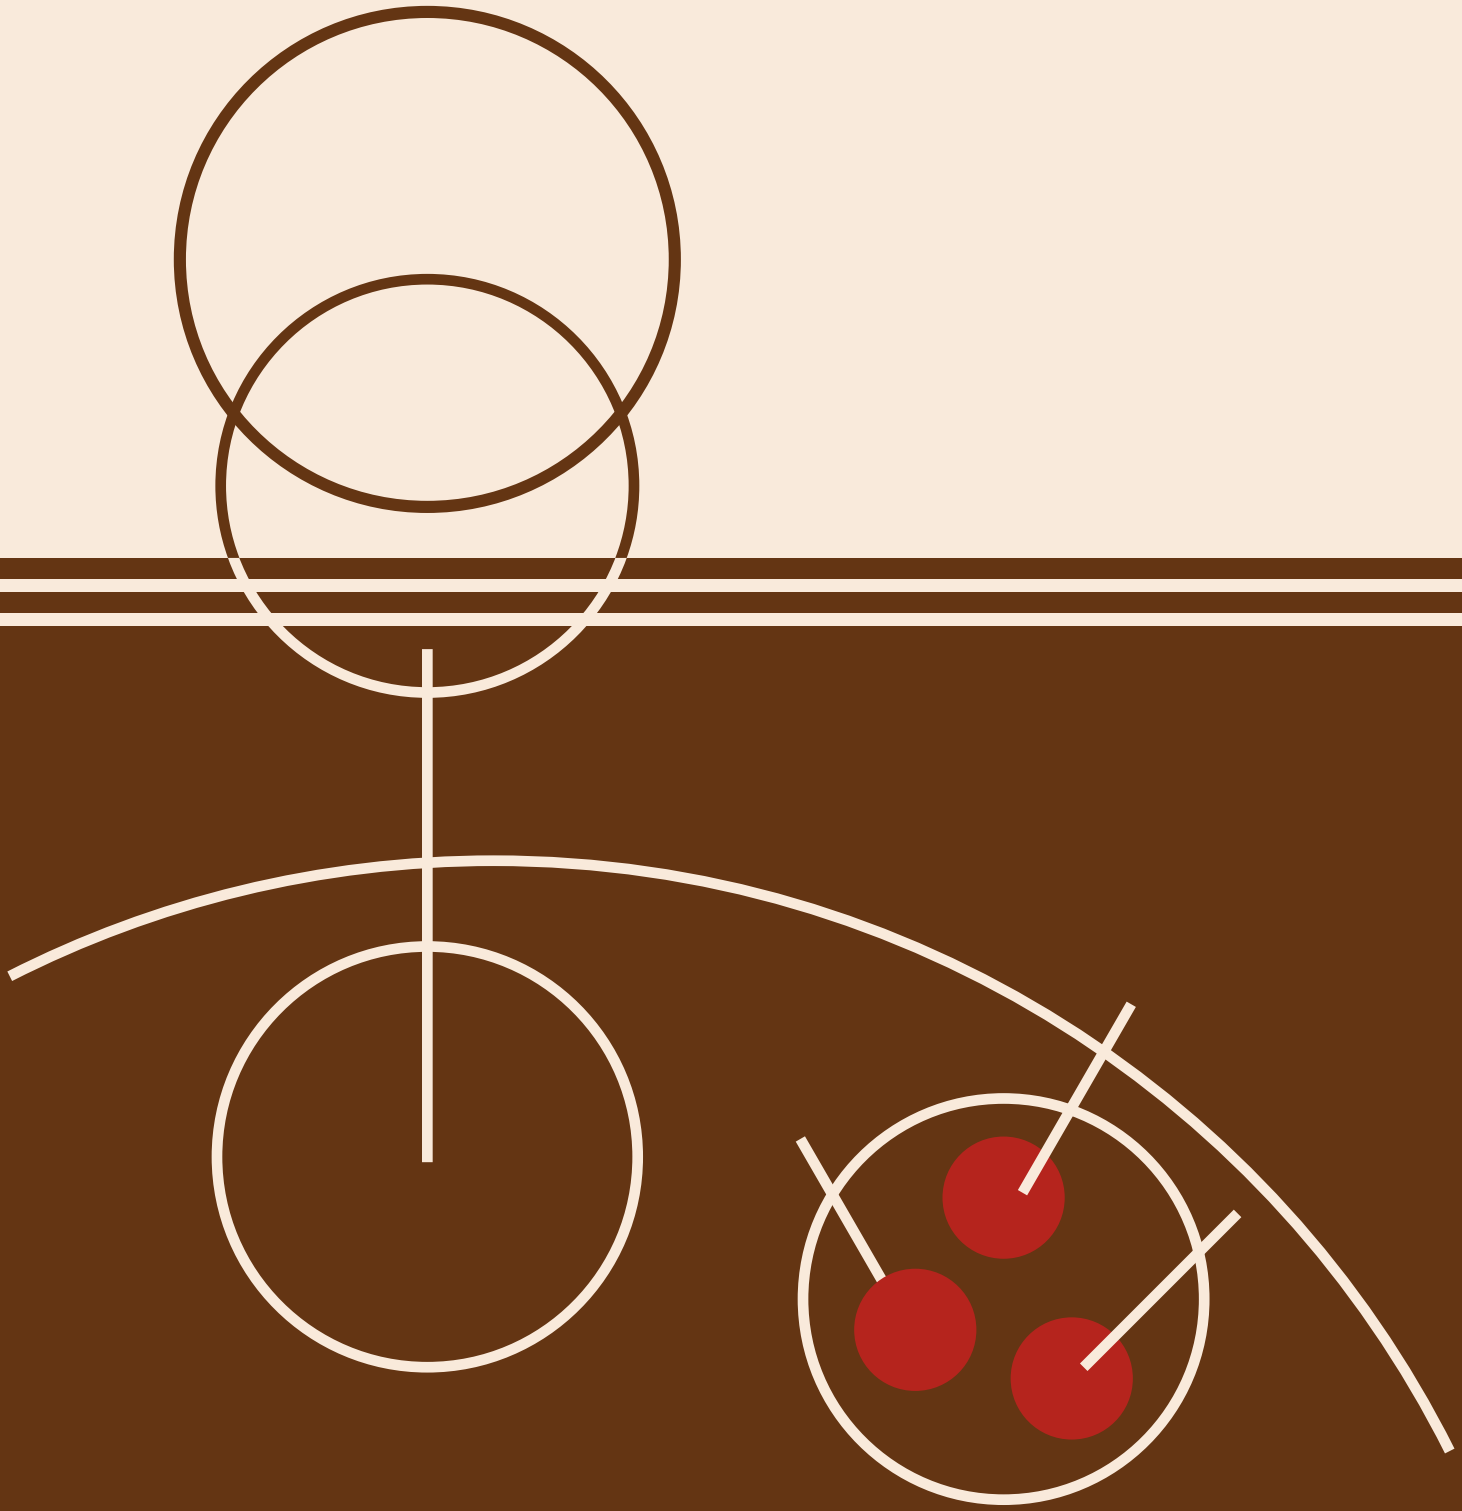
The Park



PRIVATE DINING

ABOUT THE PARK

With its corner position in the prestigious Park Modern building, The Park is a New York-inspired restaurant and bar, combining sophisticated contemporary design with a strong modernist Manhattan touch.

Open seven days a week from early until late into the evening, The Park is magnificently located directly opposite Kensington Gardens, where Bayswater Road meets Queensway. The Park was opened by Jeremy King in the summer of 2024.

THE MANHATTAN ROOM

Seating 12 guests, the private dining room is located in utter privacy on the lower ground floor and is available to book seven days a week, for breakfast, lunch or dinner, with set menus available for each sitting.

The room is equally suited to small meetings, with extensive AV facilities discreetly hidden.

It features African Limba wood panelling, a large marquetry table, chairs upholstered in sunset orange leather and velvet-covered banquettes. The coffered ceiling features a hand-painted mural depicting a bird's eye view of Manhattan's Central Park by the British scenic artist Michael May.

Lighting blends Art Deco and contemporary elements, and the room is hung with a collection of iconic, full technicolour photographs by the renowned photographer Horst P. Horst.

OUR MENUS

The Park serves contemporary American food, with a strong Manhattan edge, favouring simple presentation and excellent ingredients. Desserts are all-American. The drinks menu has a dual identity, embracing the best of America and Italy. The wine list offers an exceptional selection of mostly Californian and Italian wines.

Our cocktails have a classic DNA, including old school classics that stay true to the original recipes, contemporary variations on classics or contemporary classics. There is also a sophisticated choice of alcohol-free cocktails.
